capable and sympathetic adviser and friend to every student in

Manistee High School, we, the Senior Class, dedicate the 1938

Senior Class History

FRESHMAN YEAR

Four years ago, in the year 1935, one hundred and ninety-five healthy little freshmen cherubs, eyes sparkling with mischief, and faces beaming with fun, entered the doors of that well-known institution, Manistee High School.

A few hours later, many freshmen were objects of unimagined creation. It was quite evident that upper classmen had accomplished their works of art. With the assistance of those villainous implements, scissors and clippers, they had clipped and snipped, until all that remained of their beautiful locks was a short, seared stubble. The freshmen were initiated.

After the freshman had become accustomed to general routine of Manistee High they elected the following officers: Cleora Forth, president; Dennis Shea, vice-president; Edwin Piotrowski, secretary-treasurer. The class, whose sponsors were Miss Doris Brower and Mr. Hegler, did not engage in any activities during the first year.

SOPHOMORE CLASS

A year later, 1936, that same group had advanced to the sophomore (wise fool) stage, and with it originated "Mary's Little Lamb," but more familiar to most of us as the homeroom, C-3, sponsored by Mr. Joseph Willard Krause. To give a very distinct picture of that homeroom, the following more prominent members should be mentioned: Mome Derengoski, Peanuts, Mome Piotrowski, Murphy, Mike Bialik, and Lewis Peterson. Enough said?

The following class officers were elected; Jerome Derengoski, president; Edwin Piotrowski, vice-president; Marcia Field, secretary-treasurer. Miss Thomas and Mr. Brainerd were the class advisors.

THE JUNIOR CLASS

"We're upper-classmen now!" was the triumphant cry of the junior class of 1937 as they took their places in C-10, the junior homeroom. This was to be their busy year.

No time for fooling around this year. At least that's what they said.

Miss Thomas and Mr. Brainerd were again class sponsors, and with their help, the juniors hoped to make the year a tremendous success.

The class hurriedly nominated candidates for the class offices, and the following students were the successful ones: president, Jerome Derengoski; vice president, Edwin Piotrowski; secretary, Dennis Shea; treasurer, Lewis Peterson.

One of the most important events of the year would be, of course, the Junior Play, and "Icebound," was selected. For many weeks, rehearsals were held, until the play was in complete readiness. It was successfully presented November 19th and 20th under the direction of Miss Thomas.

The second highlight of the year was the J-Hop. It would take time and effort before that could be staged, so preparations were begun early. Various committees were selected early to formulate the plans. Since decorations are the most important factor in planing a J-Hop, that committee was the first and largest. Evelyn Pepera was made chairman, and was assisted by twenty of the class members. Smaller committees were chosen, headed by Edmund Knaffle and Charlene Mucha respectively, to arrange for music and refreshments.

The night of May 21st was a memorable one for all the juniors. The crowded weeks of work and drudgery were completely forgotten, as they gazed at the sight before them. The gym had been completely transformed into a lovely flower garden. The girls gowned in frocks of pastel shades, and the boys in their immaculate white flannels and dark coats, dancing together to the strains of Harry Goslin's music, under dimmed lights, presented a spectacle that was breathtaking. The juniors were satisfied. The J-Hop was a success.

SENIOR CLASS

1938! Another class of seniors to be graduated this year! It was almost inconceivable that these make-believe men and women of the world were those frightened freshmen of four years ago. For the third consecutive year, Miss Thomas and Mr. Brainerd were class sponsors.

The officers for the year were: president, Jerome Derengoski; vice-president, Evelyn Pepera; secretary, Edwin Piotrowski; treasurer, Lewis Miller.

The object foremost in every senior's mind was to have a real skip day! Their enthusiasm, however, was over-shadowed by one small, but very important item. Lack of money. Students and sponsors racked their brains seeking by scheme or plot, to increase their funds.

One minute, please! Someone has had an idea, why couldn't the seniors give a play? With a director like Miss Thomas, and a ready and willing class to cooperate it would have to be a success. So the play, "The King Rides By," was selected, the cast chosen, and after almost two months of rehearsals, was presented on March tenth and eleventh.

Ideas flew fast and thick now. Permission was received to have dances after basketball games, and instruction in dancing was given for six weeks.

Perhaps visions of skip day and graduation made the months slip away so rapidly but nevertheless the amount in the class treasury had risen considerably, and the long awaited skip day was in sight.

The MANICHIGAN staff

wishes to thank Mr. Ralph

Touhy and the members of the printing classes, whose indispensable help made the annual possible.

Class Prophecy

The Manichigan staff were sitting in the annual room, feet on the table, reading Esquire and other intellectual magazines of that type, and talking. There was a timid knock at the door. Howard Olk put down the article "Morals of Youth," long enough to admit the modest sophomore, Roger Campbell. Mr. Campbell announced that he had a new kind of movie camera, which took a picture of a person and when the film was developed, showed how the subject looked and what he was doing twenty years later. The staff were skeptical, but agreed to step into the auditorium and see a few reels. The Scotchman explained that he had taken pictures of the Seniors. The shades were drawn and the projector's beam flashed down on the screen. The first picture appeared and the audience gasped with amazement! This was something different! First to be seen were Ardis Baldner and Ellsworth Schimke, happily married and raising kids (baby goats, you fool). In the evening Mr. Schimke reads the book, "Bee Glad You're Crazy" by the two promising collaborators, Howard Olk and Bill Johnson. Mrs. Schimke was reading "The Life of Shirley Temple" by Wanda McIntosh. The scene changed to Jim Barr still wooing Dorothy Berglund, manager of Berglund, Berglund, and Berglund, wholesale druggists. Jimmy was met later by Lewis Peterson and Lewis Miller, wholesale hecklers.

Carl Nowak and David Medacco were seen in their recently purchased hospital, thinking they would save hospital expenses if they owned one themselves. Dave Rozga, suffering from swelling of the head, was a patient there, and so was Robert Masten, of Ludington, whose wife, the former Phyllis Hansen, had become rough during one of their frequent quarrels. Katherine Owens and Frances Piechowiak (two heads are better than one) were nurses. On a table was seen Fashion Magazine, edited by Grace Topping and Carl Exner. Francis Muszynski's illustrations were prominent throughout and Allen Cabot modeled men's clothes

The scene changed. A great crowd was gathered around three speakers, standing on soap boxes. Cleora Forth was one speaker, wearing a red shirt formerly the property of Jerome Derengoski. She was extolling the glories of a socialist state, and trying to outshout Jerome Derengoski, a noted, if somewhat shady, politician. The third speaker was Peter Murphy, denouncing everything. Robert Knudstrup, State Democratic boss, was seen in the crowd as were Irene Ball, Jean Bureau, Genevieve Dalke and Joe Adamski.

The next unreeled was Gunderson's Dancing Salon, where Bernadine Anderson and Margaret Knudstrup were instructing Carl and Phillip Olson how to waltz. As the Salon was very fashionable, Ed Knaffle's dance band was furnishing the music. Dick Mathews and his saxophone were featured. Milton Peterson who bought out Standard Oil, dropped in with Thomas Olson, the last of the Republican party.

Florian and Casimir Rakowski were shown discovering the missing Linkes, Wayne and Carl. This reel was a double feature, and gave us a glimpse of Hollywood, where Severin Wieda, the idol of fifty million women, and Dennis Shea, Erin's gift to the ladies, were making a picture. Phidelas Ziemba, was the innocent and unsuspecting heroine, and Margaret Willet and Ted Walters acted the parts of the villains. Bob Hanson was property man. Gowns were designed by Kathleen Cichy and Dorothy Bradford.

A large gymnasium was next seen, where America's most successful professional basketball team was playing. Andy Anderson, Ray Newman and Mac Pennell were the stars. Most avid rooters for the team were Olive Cole, Regina Gutoski, and Bernice Dalka. Mike Bialik, a confirmed bachelor, was seen there with Helen Sadowski who, with Helen Chadwick, ran a prosperous lady's ready-to-wear store. Ingeborg Nelson was a model there, and often saw Junior Hanson come in with his wife

Jerome Sobczak's department store was pictured. Evelyn Pepera was personnel director at $10,000 a year. She was heard to confide to Marjorie Kobutsky and Regina Kostecki that the secret of her success was in agreeing with everyone. Charlene Mucha was manager of the hardware department and Grace Fearnow was demonstrating to Phillis Popa how to bake a sponge cake. Garnet Englund managed the adjustment office. No matter what was wrong with the merchandise, the customer always left satisfied by Garnet's excuses. Glenn Pierson had just left the office after complaining that the suit he bought was three sizes too large for him. Robert Peterson had sold it to him.

Across the street Bob Bjorkquist and Bob Christensen had a food and meat market. Dorothy Christensen and Margaret Peterson kept the books and did the ordering.

The scene changed to a broadcasting station. Marijane Gustafson was demonstrating to the listeners, by means of television, how to become a beauty specialist. In the chair was Ethel Falk. Grace Pirsig was the announcer, and music for the program was supplied by Marge Zielinski's all girl orchestra, which included Marcia Field, Lorraine Stevens, Ruth Kieling, Mildred Nelson, and Ruth Walle. Gail Zimmerman, Mae Racine, and Janice Przyblski made up a vocal trio, Leslie Jorgensen, brilliant electrical engineer, designed and installed most of the equipment.

The following reel gave us a flash of an airplane designing and manufacturing company, owned by two former army men, Harry Sponnoble and Ed Piotrowski. Their chief engineer was Steve Polcyn, and Don Swanson and Gerald Sytek were test pilots.

As the last scene was flashed, Dorothy Lundbom, a secret agent, was reporting that Jerome Piotrowski had evaded his income tax, and was in danger of a government trial unless he paid up.

The lights went on, but the staff wanted to see more. Mr. Campbell agreed, but suddenly there was a loud explosion, and the projector burst into flames!

Money is filthy lucre and it talks, but many a girl will listen to dirt.

Old Lady: Little boy, why aren't you in school instead of going to this movie?

Sponnoble: Heck, lady, I got the measles.

Mrs. Gunderson: Junior, say "ah" so the doctor can get his fist out of your mouth.

About the only girl who has any use for a windy guy is a flat tire.

Andy: Why do you call your girl Checkers?

Ellsworth : Oh, she jumps every time you make a bad move.

Mr. Knaffle: Ed, can't you cut down on your school expenses?

Edmund: Well, I could do without books.

Mome D.: Oh, oh! My memory has gone back on me.

Peanuts: Do you remember the time you borrowed that dollar from me?

Mome D.: No, it hasn't gone back that far.

Jerome, one guy who always means business when he kisses is a gigolo.

Give a woman an inch and she's got a bathing suit.

Matrimonial wars are usually won by battle axes.

(During lesson on creation)

Lewis M.: But my father says we were apes.

Doctor Oakes: Now Lewis we can't talk about your family history in class.

Bill J.: We certainly had a big time for ten cents.

Barbara W.: Yes I wonder how Ray spent it.

Gerald B.: I've been wanting to think of a word for two weeks.

Bob T.: How about fortnight.

Exner: Now then, the next hot dog is on me, so don't argue about it.

Derengowski: Good night, can't you let me be a sport once in awhile.

Exner: Oh, do you want to buy the hot dog.

Derengoski: No, but I want to argue about it.

Melissa: How do you like my new evening dress.

Mome P.: I can't tell until you get up from the table.

Ed G.: That fellow has a corking job.

Phidelas: You don't say. What does he do.

Ed: He's a blackface comedian.

Barbara B: (at football game) Oh, Raymond, see the pretty jerseys!

Bond: Yeah, the thundering herd!

ACTIVITIES

Musical Organizations

The M. H. S. music classes have just completed a very successful year. These classes are divided into two major groups, that is, the Band and Orchestra.

The Band is made up of fifty members. It has entertained the student body at assemblies and has played an important part in home athletic contests.

The orchestra has had another successful season, having played for all the class plays and many outside activities. There are thirty-five members in the orchestra, many of whom are also members of the band.

The Band and Orchestra have added much to our school life and at the present time make an organization of which we can be justly proud. Much of the credit for this improvement can be given to the instructor, Mr. Suda.

The Chippewa Herald

The Chippewa Herald was born on St. Patrick's Day, March 17, 1931. The members of the journalism class of that year christened their paper "The Chippewa Herald." It was a bi-weekly publication as it is today. Schults did the linotyping, but it was run off on the high school press.

The next year (1932) no course in journalism was offered. A staff of former journalism students was organized and a mimeographed paper was published weekly.

Last year (1936-1937), a group of students in the speech class were anxious to start a school paper. The Chippewa Herald came into being again. Thirteen issues were printed.

This year it is expected that fifteen issues of the paper will be printed. The paper is again published by a new journalism class of eight members. This class meets two days a week for the year.

Edwin Piotrowski, Howard Olk, and Bill Johnson, seniors, have assisted the journalism class in getting advertising, and Bill Catton, eighth grader, has been a special news reporter for his class.

The Chippewa Herald attempts to be self-supporting, and so far has kept its nose above water.

The Junior Red Cross was organized during the World War when school children sought an opportunity to enlist in the service of their nation. The Juniors have for their motto, "I Serve." The Junior Red Cross aids in community projects, organized welfare programs, and engages in making gifts for children, veterans, and the aged in hospitals.

The local Junior Red Cross council worked in conjunction with Mrs. Gem Carl, executive secretary of the local chapter and with Mr. J. W. Krause, adviser of the council, and publicity chairman of Manistee County. The Student Council

After being discontinued several years, the Student Organization of Manistee High School was re-established this year. Its objects are to develop continuous, constructive citizenship, build up school spirit and morale at all times, and to develop intelligent voters through participation in school elections.

The Student Council is the actual working body of this organization. Membership consists of a boy and a girl representative from the ninth, tenth, eleventh, and twelfth grades and one representative from the eighth grade, in addition to the Council president.

Officers of the Council are a president, vice-president, and secretary-treasurer. The president is elected by the Student Body, and the other two officers are elected by the Council itself.

This year, because the entire set-up was new and untried, Council members were class officers. After being organized, the Council elected all its own officers.

Mr. L. C. Bendle, High School principal, is adviser to the Council.

-Girl's Glee Club

Vera Makinen and Betty Mae Axce are also members but were absent at the time the picture was taken.

The Girls' Glee Club, consisting of 14 members, was organized last fall. Since then they have made remarkable progress as is evidenced by the number of times they have been called upon to sing for various school activities.

Daisies won't tell. Tell was William's last name. A name is what you call your worst enemy. Enemy is the other side. The other side is the opposing team. Team is water vapor and cut out the baby talk or you'll be pushing up daisies too.

Miss Clarkson rapping on her desk yelled, "Gentlemen, order!" The entire class shouted: "Beer."

If a man can't get a woman off his mind he'll have her on his hands.

Miss Reed: Dear children, tell me the last thing you must do before going to bed.

Doug Kenny: Put the doorkey in the mailbox for grandmother.

Bill Kruse: I'm suffering from pointed shoes.

Karl Hermann: But you don't wear pointed shoes.

Billy: I know I don't, but my girl's old man wears 'em.

Peggy F: Can you drive with one arm?

Warren H.: You bet!

Peggy: Okay, have an apple.

Sometimes you don't know a woman's dynamite until you've dropped her.

"There's a boy named Gerald Bialik working here. I'm his grandfather. May I see him?" "You just missed him, he's gone to your funeral."

Barbara W.: What would you say to a girl who kisses every man she meets?
Louis G.: Pleased to meet you.

Dewey B.: I know a girl who plays piano by ear. Stewart F.: 'Snothing—I know an old man who fiddles with his whiskers.

Jim Barr: Yes, the bullet struck my head, went careening into space, and— L. Peterson: How terrible! Did they get it out?

Football

The Manistee Chippewa's received their first conference defeat from the powerful Ludington Orioles. The team showed up fairly well against the running and passing attack of the Orioles. Ludington scored their first touchdown on a long end run in the first quarter. In the second period the Orioles scored by a series of passes and end runs. They scored their final touchdown of the game in the third quarter. In the fourth stanza, the Chippewa's played the Orioles on even terms. The final count was 19-0.

The Petoskey Northmen went down to defeat at the hands of the Redskins in their second conference game of the season. Although the teams fought on even terms in the first half, the Chippewa's found their stride in the third frame. After a series of first downs, they pushed the ball over for the first and only tally of the game. The extra point was also good. In the fourth period, the Redskins rallied again but a penalty cut the rally short when they were in the shadow of the Petoskey goal. The game ended with the Northmen on the short end of a 7-0 score.

In one of the best games of the season, the Chippewa's trimmed the Reed City eleven. In the first period Sobczak intercepted a pass and made a spectacular run of 85 yards for the first points of the game. Piotrowski is credited with the second score of the game when he made a beautiful run of 80 yards in the same quarter. In the second quarter, the teams battled quite evenly, but in the third frame the Coyotes took advantage of a break and scored their lone tally. The Chippewa's scored their last touchdown, the final score being 20-7.

The Chippewa's received their second defeat in conference play from the Cadillac Vikings. The Redskins seemed to be too over confident. Most of the Viking's touchdowns were due to our fumbles and a weak line. The Vikings scored two touchdowns in the first quarter, one in the second, and two more in the last period. The Chippewa's played their best in the third quarter. The final score was 32-0.

The Chippewas held the strong Trojans scoreless in the first quarter. Traverse then broke away and scored two touchdowns in the second and third quarters with two long runs. Manistee threatened to score in the final quarter but was checked as the game ended on the Traverse nine yard line. All in all the Chippewas made a good showing against the powerful Trojan team. The final score was 28-0.

The Manistee High School Chippewa's suffered their final defeat of the season at the hands of the powerful Ludington Orioles. During the first quarter, the Chippewas determined to score, kept the ball deep in Ludington territory, but in the second quarter, with the wind to their advantage, the Orioles pushed over two touchdowns. In the third period, the Orioles went wild and scored three touchdowns and to make it certain, they scored one touchdown in the last stanza. The final season score was 38-0.

Basket Ball

Basket Ball

In their annual encounter with the Alumni, the Chippewas defeated them by a score of 22-16. In the first quarter, the Redskins displayed a brilliant passing attack and a keen eye for the basket. The Chippewas led at the half, 13-11. In the last half, the tribe again outscored the Alumni. Outstanding for the Redskins were Anderson and Bialik with ten and five points respectively.

In the first conference tilt of the season the Chippewas bowed to the fast breaking Ludington Orioles by a score of 29-22. The team put up a stout defense which made the Orioles shoot from near mid-floor. The half ended with the score 21-11, in favor of Ludington. In the last half, the Redskins' defense tightened and their offense worked smoothly, which resulted in the outscoring of the Orioles in that half 11-8. Exner led the Chippewas with thirteen points.

A fast rangy Muskegon Heights team defeated the tribe in a fast and close game by a score of 22-17. In the first half the Chippewas offered a strong defense and allowed the Tigers only nine points, while the tribe accounted for a similar number. In the third frame, the Muskegon crew went on a scoring spree to take the lead at the end of the quarter 15-13. Despite a savage attack in the closing minutes the Redskins were unable to pull away.

The Salt City quintet scored their first conference victory of the season by defeating the Cadillac Vikings 30-20. The first quarter was hard fought with the score being 6-6. The next quarter, the Redskins pulled ahead and led at the half 14-10. The tribe dominated the play in the second half by scoring sixteen points to the Vikings ten. Olk was outstanding for the Redskins with fourteen points.

In the second encounter with the Vikings the tribe again defeated them by a score of 26-24. This game was closely fought and the score was tied at the end of the game 24-24. After a three minute over-time period neither team had scored. In the next over-time period Piotrowski swished the netted circle from mid-floor to pull the game out of the fire. Rozga led the Chippewas with seven points.

The Manistee High School Chippewas closed their 1938 season in a blaze of glory as they defeated the highly favored Traverse City Trojans 25-21. In the first half the tribe worked smoothly but failed to find the hoop. Traverse City left the floor at the half with the score in their favor 14-7. But in the third frame the Redskins went on a scoring spree to take the lead at the end of the quarter 17-15. The Redskins continued their attack in the last period and ran up eight points to the Trojans six. Exner and Newman were outstanding for the Chippewas with eleven and eight points respectively.

Track

The 1937 track team's first meet was with Onekama. In this meet, the M. H. S. thinclads copped 4 or 5 first place honors, but this meet was just a warm-up for the meet at Cadillac. At Cadillac, Bialik and C. Rakowski placed second in the half mile and first in the mile run respectively.

Soon after, the M. H. S. team traveled to the Regional meet at Cadillac, where the competition was quite stiff. In this meet the boys came through with twenty-seven points to place third.

The winners who placed at the Regional meet, were entitled to enter the State Final at Lansing. The boys who made the trip were; W. Linke, B. Drew, C. Lewis, M. Bialik, and C. Rakowski. The competition was keen but C. Rakowski was able to place fifth in the mile run, his time being 4:46 which broke the record he set at the Regional meet.

This closed a very successful year for the M. H. S. thinclads and we predict an even more successful year in 1938.

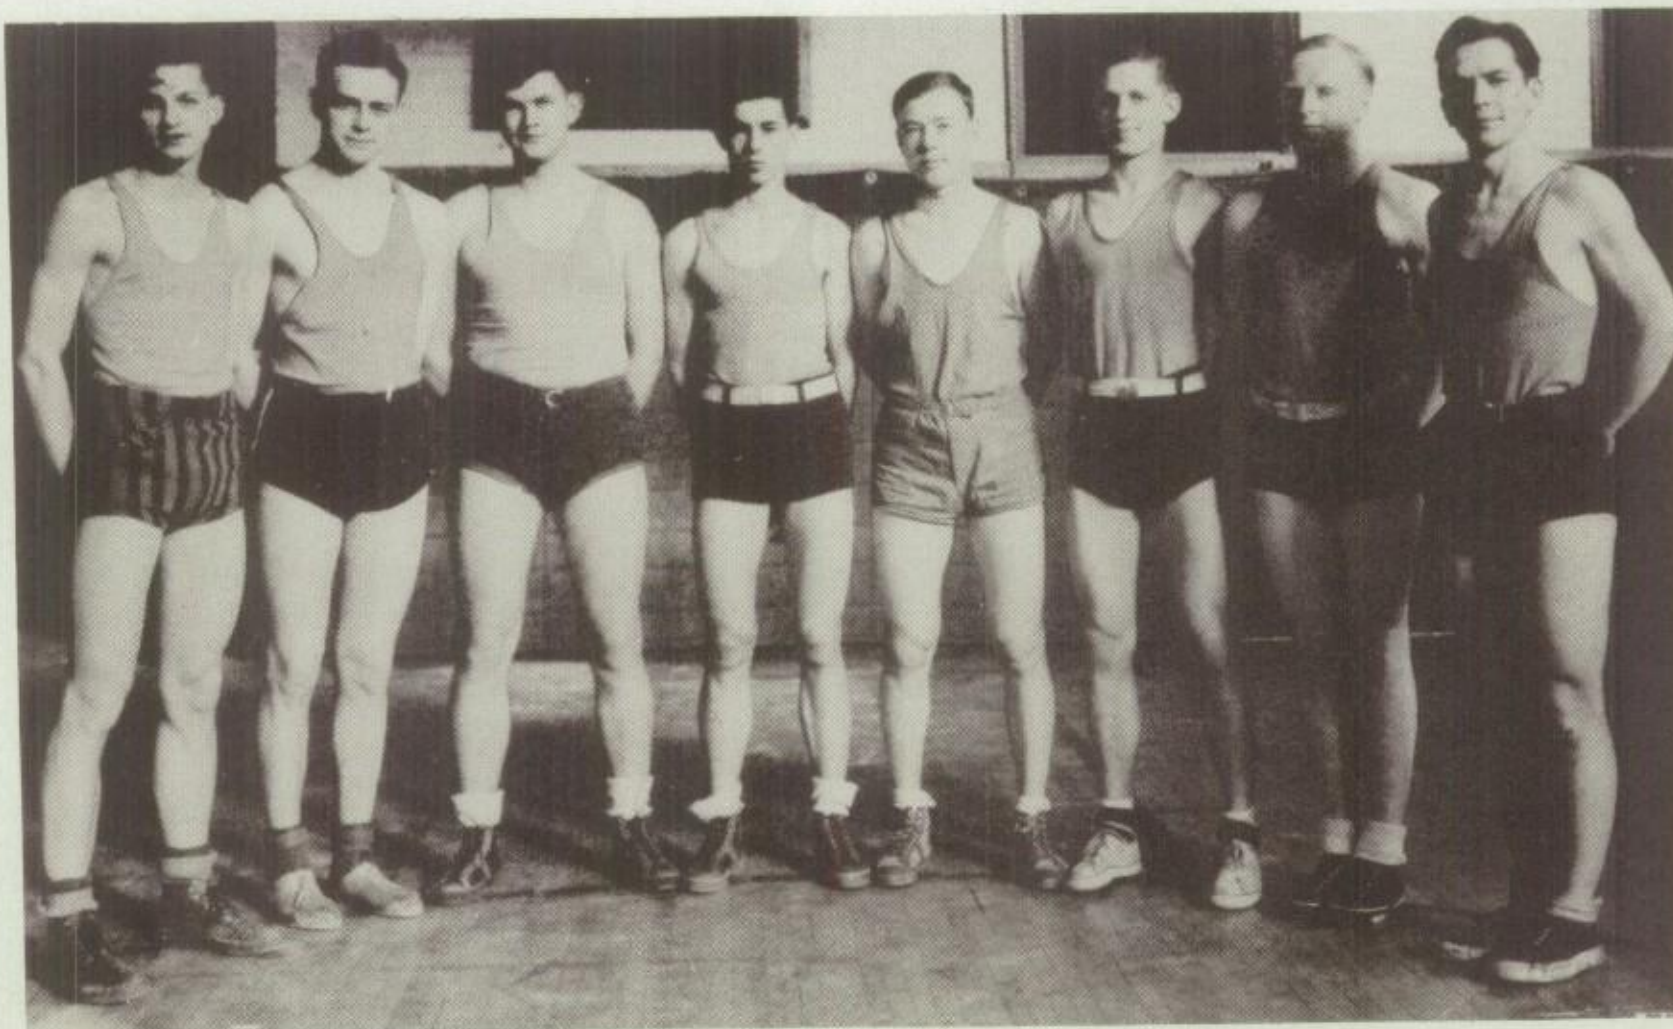

Cheer Leaders

Reading from left to right are the following: Dennis Shea, Marymae Davis, Neva Rumbell, and Virginia Racine.

The cheer leaders were active this year, having conducted several pep meetings and attended most of the out-of-town games, in addition to the home games. Several new yells were given try-outs this year and new tumbling acts were devised and used.

Mr. Reo Gonser is their faculty sponsor.

Senior Class Champs

Left to right: Lewis, Wieda, Barr, Pennel, Polcyn, Piotrowski, Rakowski, Shea.

This year the intramural play in basketball was divided up into two leagues — the class and intramural leagues. In the class league the Seniors won the championship by taking seven games in a row.

Outstanding players on the squad were Jim Barr, Jerome Piotrowski, Steve Polcyn, and Clinton Lewis. Piotrowski lead the squad in scoring with 65 points.

The record for the season is:

Seniors, 28	Band, 29	Seniors, 15	Juniors, 11
Seniors, 16	Hi-Y, 7	Seniors, 23	Hi-Y, 12
Seniors, 27	Frosh, 5	Seniors, 22	Band, 12
Seniors, 14		Juniors, 11

Navy Intramural Champs

(Picture not available)

The Navy squad won this championship with eight wins and no losses. Capt. Joe Bushor lead his team with 47 points with Gehopolos close behind with 43. Nowak, Kempf, and Nelson also aided the team in winning the title by their floor play.

Most saucily said, "I will nacht,"
So a senior in wrath
Took a section of lath
And warmed him up well on the spacht.

Dentist: I'll have to pull that tooth, and if I use gas to put you to sleep it will be $3 extra.

Wanda McIntosh: Hoot, mon! Just tell me a bedtime story.

Miss Thomas: Henry, why does Missouri stand at the head in mule-raising in the United States?

Henry N.: Because the other end is dangerous.

Mr. Nowak: I'm afraid our son will be in the hospital a long time.

Mrs. Nowak: Why, did you see the doctor?

Mr. Nowak: No, I saw Carl's nurse.

Jane: Dave called up the house four times before I gave him a date.

Lorraine: Who did he ask for the first three times.

Mr. Radtke: Will you please explain the difference between shilling and pence?

All did expect Lewis Peterson.

"Why, Lewis," said the teacher, "wouldn't you like to go to Heaven?"
